

SHAWN WHITE'S NOTES ON THE WHITE HORSE PROPHECY

There is a lot of discussion about the White Horse Prophecy. Most of the discussions are trying to discredit it by verifying circumstances of time and place surrounding when Joseph spoke these words. I'm going to approach it by trying to connect the words that were spoken to scriptures and the words Joseph Smith spoke on other occasions as well as others' dreams and visions concerning the days ahead of us.

Some questions have arisen regarding the authenticity of the "White Horse Prophecy" because it was not documented at the time that it was to have been given. Edwin Rushton and Theodore Turley were witnesses to this prophecy and gave their testimony to its validity.

A few years before the death of Edwin Rushton in 1904, he was requested by several close friends to make a recorded and notarized statement regarding this prophecy. His friends James H. Anderson acted as recorder and Arnold G. Giauque was notary for the following account of this prophecy.

On or about the 6th day of May, 1843, a grand review of the Nauvoo Legion was held in Nauvoo. The Prophet Joseph complimented them for their good discipline and evolutions performed. The weather being hot, he called for a glass of water. With the glass of water in his hand he said, "I drink to you a toast to the overthrow of the mobocrats."

The next morning a man who had heard the Prophet give the toast returned to visit the mansion of the Prophet, and so abused him with bad language that the man was ordered out by the Prophet. It was while the two were out that my attention was attracted to them and hearing the man speaking in a loud tone of voice, I went toward them; the man finally leaving. There were present the Prophet Joseph Smith, Theodore Turley and myself.

The Prophet began talking to us of the mobbings and drivings and persecutions we as a people have endured but, he said, "We will have worse things to see; our persecutors will have all the mobbings they want. Don't wish them any harm, for when you see their sufferings you will shed bitter tears for them."

While this conversation was going on, we stood by his south wicket gate in a triangle. Turning to me he said: "I want to tell you something. ¹ I will speak in a parable like unto John the Revelator. ² You will be in the Rocky Mountains, and you will be a great and mighty people established there, which I will call the White Horse of Peace and Safety." When the Prophet said you will see it, I asked him, "Where will you be?" He answered, "I shall never go there."

THE WHITE HORSE PROPHECY

There is a lot of discussion about the White Horse Prophecy. Most of the discussions are trying to discredit it by verifying circumstances of time and place surrounding when Joseph spoke these words. I'm going to approach it by trying to connect the words that were spoken to scriptures and the words Joseph Smith spoke on other occasions as well as others' dreams and visions concerning the days ahead of us.

Some questions have arisen regarding the authenticity of the "White Horse Prophecy" because it was not documented at the time that it was to have been given. Edwin Rushton and Theodore Turley were witnesses to this prophecy and gave their testimony to its validity.

A few years before the death of Edwin Rushton in 1904, he was requested by several close friends to make a recorded and notarized statement regarding this prophecy. His friends James H. Anderson acted as recorder and Arnold G. Giaouque was notary for the following account of this prophecy.

On or about the 6th day of May, 1843, a grand review of the Nauvoo Legion was held in Nauvoo. The Prophet Joseph complimented them for their good discipline and evolutions performed. The weather being hot, he called for a glass of water. With the glass of water in his hand he said, "I drink to you a toast to the overthrow of the mobocrats."

The next morning a man who had heard the Prophet give the toast returned to visit the mansion of the Prophet, and so abused him with bad language that the man was ordered out by the Prophet. It was while the two were out that my attention was attracted to them and hearing the man speaking in a loud tone of voice, I went toward them; the man finally leaving. There were present the Prophet Joseph Smith, Theodore Turley and myself.

The Prophet began talking to us of the mobbings and drivings and persecutions we as a people have endured but, he said, "We will have worse things to see; our persecutors will have all the mobbings they want. Don't wish them any harm, for when you see their sufferings you will shed bitter tears for them.

While this conversation was going on, we stood by his south wicket gate in a triangle. Turning to me he said: "I want to tell you something. 1 I will speak in a parable like unto John the Revelator. 2 You will be in the Rocky Mountains, and you will be a great and mighty people established there, which I will call the White Horse of Peace and Safety."

When the Prophet said you will see it, I asked him, "Where will you be at that time?" He said, 3 "I shall never go there. 4 Your enemies will continue to follow you with persecutions and will make obnoxious laws against you in Congress to destroy the White Horse, but you will have a friend to defend you to throw out the worst part of the laws, so they will not hurt much. You must continue to petition Congress all the time, but they will not give you your rights but will govern you with strangers and commissioners; 5 you will see the Constitution of the United States almost destroyed; it will hang by a thread, as it were, as fine as the finest silk fiber."

At this point, the Prophet's countenance became sad; he said, 6 "I love the Constitution. It was made by the inspiration of God, and it will be preserved and saved by the efforts of the White Horse and the Red Horse, who will combine in its defense. 7The White Horse will raise an ensign on the tops of the mountains of peace and safety.

8The White Horse will find the mountains full of minerals and they will become very rich. You will see silver piled in the streets. You will see gold shoveled up like sand. Gold will be of little value even in a mercantile capacity, for the people of the world will have something else to do in seeking for salvation. The time will come when the banks in every nation will fail and only two places will be safe where people can deposit their gold and treasures. These places will be the White Horse and England's vaults.

9A terrible revolution will take place in the land of America, such as has never been seen before; for the land will literally be left without a supreme government and every species of wickedness will run rampant. Father will be against son, and son against father, mother against daughter, and daughter against mother. The most terrible scenes of murder and bloodshed and rapine that have ever been looked upon will take place. Peace will be taken from the earth and there will be no peace only in the Rocky Mountains. This will cause many thousands of the honest in heart to gather there; not because they would be saints, but for safety and because they would not take up the sword against their neighbor. You will be so numerous that you will be in danger of famine, but not for the want of seed time and harvest, but because of so many to be fed. Many will come with bundles under their arms to escape the calamities, and there will be no escape except by fleeing to Zion. Those that come to you will try to keep the laws and be one with you, for they will see your unity and the greatness of your organization.

10The Turkish Empire will be one of the first powers to be disrupted, for freedom must be given for the Gospel to be preached in the Holy Land.

11The Lord took the best blood of the nations and planted them on the small islands now called England and Great Britain, and gave them great power in the nations for a thousand years and their power will continue with them, that they might keep the balance of power and keep Russia from usurping her power over all the world. England and France are now bitter enemies, but they will be allied together and be united to keep Russia from conquering the world.

12The two Popes, Greek and Catholic, will come together and be united. The Protestant religions do not know how much they are indebted to Henry the VIII for throwing off the Pope's Bull and establishing the Protestant faith. He was the only monarch who could do so at the time, and he did it because this nation, England, was at his back to sustain him.

13 One of the peculiar features of England is the established red coat, a uniform making so remarkable a mark to shoot at, and yet they have conquered wherever they have gone. The reason for this will be known by them some day. 14 The Lion and the Unicorn of Israel is their ensign; the wisdom and statesmanship of England comes from having so much of the blood of Israel in the nation.

15 While the terrible revolution of which I have spoken has been going on, England will be neutral until it becomes so inhuman that she will interfere to stop the shedding of blood. England and France will unite together to make peace, not to subdue the nations; they will find the nations so broken up and so many claiming government, till there will be no responsible government. Then it will appear to the other nations as though England had taken possession of the country.

16 The "Black Horse" will flee to the invaders and will join with them, for they have fear of becoming slaves again, knowing England did not believe in slavery, fleeing to them they believe would make them safe; armed with British bayonets, the doings of the "black horse" will be terrible." (Here the Prophet said he could not bear to look on the scene as shown him in vision and asked the Lord to close the scene.)

Continuing, he said, 17 "During this time the great "White Horse" will have gathered strength sending out Elders to gather the honest in heart among the "Pale Horse," or people of the United States, to stand by the Constitution of the United States, as it was given by inspiration of God."

18 In these days God will set up a kingdom, never to be thrown down, for other kingdoms to come unto. And these kingdoms that will not let the gospel be preached will be humbled until they will. England, Germany, Norway, Denmark, Sweden, Switzerland, Holland and Belgium have a considerable amount of the blood of Israel among their people which must be gathered. These nations will submit to the Kingdom of God. England will be the last of these kingdoms to surrender; but when she does, she will do it as a whole in comparison as she threw off the Catholic power. The nobility know that the gospel is true, but it has not enough pomp and grandeur and influence them to embrace it. They are proud and will not acknowledge the kingdom of God, or come unto it until they see the power which it will have. 19 Peace and safety in the Rocky Mountains will be protected by a cordon band of the "White Horse" and the "Red Horse." 20 The coming of the Messiah among this people will be so natural that only those who see Him will know that He has come, but He will come and give His laws unto Zion, and minister unto His people. This will not be His coming in the clouds of Heaven to take vengeance on the wicked of the world.

21 The Temple in Jackson County will be built in this generation. The saints will think there is not time enough to build it; built with the help you will receive, you can put up a great temple quickly. They will have all the gold, silver, and precious stones; for these things only will be used for the beautifying of the temple; all the skilled mechanics you want, and the Ten Tribes of Israel will help you build it. When you see this land, bound with iron, you may look toward Jackson County.

At this point, he made a pause, and looking up as though the vision was still in view, he said, 22 "There is a land beyond the Rocky Mountains that will be invaded by the heathen Chinese unless great care and protection are given. Where there is no law, there is no condemnation, and this will apply to them (the heathen nations). Power will be given the White Horse to rebuke nations afar off, and they will be one with the White Horse, but when the law goes forth they will obey; for the law will go forth from Zion. The last great struggle Zion will have to contend with will be when the whole of the Americans will be made the Zion of our God. Those opposing will be called Gog and Magog (some of the nations of the world led by Russian czar) and their power will be great, but all the opposition will be overcome and then this land will be the Zion of our God."

Ref: <https://byustudies.byu.edu/article/edwin-rushton-as-the-source-of-the-white-horse-prophecy/>

Review

"I want to tell you something. I will speak in a parable like unto John the Revelator.

We will see Joseph use metaphorical terms as he describes the future he sees.

"I shall never go there.

Joseph Smith was killed in Carthage, Ill June 27, 1844. Two years later Brigham Young led one third of the saints to Utah in the Rocky Mountains. It's interesting that only one third of the Israelite left Egypt with Moses to go to the Promised Land.

You will be in the Rocky Mountains, and you will be a great and mighty people established there, which I will call the White Horse of Peace and Safety."

Here the White Horse represents the Elders of Israel or the Church of Jesus Christ.

Your enemies will continue to follow you with persecutions and will make obnoxious laws against you in Congress to destroy the White Horse, but you will have a friend to defend you to throw out the worst part of the laws, so they will not hurt much. You must continue to petition Congress all the time, but they will not give you your rights but will govern you with strangers and commissioners;

We can see examples of this in the past during Brigham Young's day, but we will continue to see men standing up for religious liberty yet in the future.

Shortly after the Saints arrived in this Rocky Mountain region, the Government sent out a massive army to "put down" the Mormons. However, when some of the Mormons in the east learned of the plot, Smoot, Rockwell, and Stoddard traveled 513 miles in five days from Fort Laramie to bring the [46] news to Governor Brigham Young. The armed expedition didn't accomplish what they set out to do, and it proved to be a blessing in disguise for the Saints. Later when the Army was disbanded in Utah, millions of dollars in goods were sold to the Mormons for less than 3% of their actual cost.

On February 16, 1882, another law was passed against the Mormons called the Edmunds Bill. (Congressional Record 47th Congress, 1st Session, Vol. 13:1152-3) This would [48] prohibit any polygamist from voting, holding public office or public trust. It was also intended to overturn the "political power" in the territory.

In March 1887, another law was passed called the Edmunds-Tucker Bill, which stated that a wife had to testify against her husband. Polygamists could be taken to jail without investigation or subpoena, and compelled immediate witnesses to attendance. All marriages were to be reported with the names of the witnesses, nature of the ceremony, and the name of the officer or religious dignitary performing the ceremony. Female suffrage was abolished. Anyone believing in plural marriage would be barred from voting and prohibited from teaching or advocating plural marriage. It also dissolved the Perpetual Emigrating Company which had been set up to assist Mormons in gathering to the territory. It provided for the disincorporation of the Mormon Church and all property over $50,000 was escheated to the federal government.

As a result, the U.S. Government took a great portion of Church property, including land and buildings. Leonard Arrington in his Great Basin Kingdom (page 371) listed some of the items which were seized.

The Salt Lake Temple was rented back to the Mormons for over $400 a month. The annual rent for the Tithing Office and Historian's Office was $4,400 a year, and the Gardo House was rented to the Saints for $400 a month. When Utah gained statehood in 1896, most of these possessions were returned to the Mormons, but much of the land seized by the Federal Government has never been returned.

Charles S. Kane was also considered a friend of the Mormons, and in most conditions he supported and respected them, as this incident demonstrates:

When Colonel Kane came to visit us, he tried to point out a policy for me <Brigham Young> to pursue. But I told him I should not turn to the right or left, or pursue any course, only as God dictated. I should do nothing but what was right. When he found that I would not be informed, only as the Spirit of the Lord led me, he felt discouraged and said he would not go to the army. But finally, he said, if I would dictate he would execute. I told him that as he had been inspired to come here, he should go to the army and do as the Spirit of the Lord led him, and all would be right. He did so, and all was right. (CHC 3:349)

“you will see the Constitution of the United States almost destroyed; it will hang by a thread, as it were, as fine as the finest silk fiber.”

D&C 101:77 According to the laws and constitution of the people, which I have suffered to be established, and should be maintained for the rights and protection of all flesh, according to just and holy principles; 80 And for this purpose have I established the Constitution of this land, by the hands of wise men whom I raised up unto this very purpose, and redeemed the land by the shedding of blood.

D&C 109:54 Have mercy, O Lord, upon all the nations of the earth; have mercy upon the rulers of our land; may those principles, which were so honorably and nobly defended, namely, the Constitution of our land, by our fathers, be established forever.

2 Esdras 12:18 That after the time of that kingdom, there shall arise great strings, and it shall stand in peril of falling: nevertheless it shall not then fall, but shall be restored again to his beginning.

Even this Nation will be on the very verge of crumbling to pieces [sic] and tumbling to the ground and when the constitution is upon the brink of ruin this people will be the Staff up[on] which the Nation shall lean and they shall bear the constitution away from the very verge of destruction. (WJS 416)

This people will be the staff upon which the nation shall lean and they shall bear the Constitution away from the very verge of destruction.—Then shall the Lord say: Go tell my servants who are the strength of mine house, my young men and middle-aged, etc., Come to the land of my vineyard and fight the battle of the Lord. Then the Kings and Queens shall come, yea the foreign saints shall come to fight for the land of my vineyard, for in this thing shall be their safety and they will have no power to choose but will come as a man fleeth from a sudden destruction. I know these things by the visions of the Almighty. (Joseph Smith Collection; from an address given 19 Jul 1840)

The Constitution is not a law, but it empowers the people to make laws The Constitution tells us what shall not be a lawful tender The legislature has ceded up to us the privilege of enacting such laws as are not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States The different states, and even Congress itself, have passed many laws diametrically contrary to the Constitution of the United States.

. . . Shall we be such fools as to be governed by its laws, which are unconstitutional? No! . . . The Constitution acknowledges that the people have all power not reserved to itself. I am a lawyer, I am a big lawyer and comprehend heaven, earth and hell, to bring forth knowledge that shall cover up all lawyers, doctors and other big bodies. This is the doctrine of the Constitution, so help me God. The Constitution is not law to us, but it makes provision for us whereby we can make laws. Where it provides that no one shall be hindered from worshiping God according to his own conscience, is a law. No legislature can enact a law to prohibit it. The Constitution provides to regulate bodies of men and not individuals. (HC 5:289–90; also in TPJS 278)

I am the greatest advocate of the Constitution of the United States there is on the earth. In my feelings I am always ready to die for the protection of the weak and oppressed in their just rights. The only fault I find with the Constitution is, it is not broad enough to cover the whole ground.

Although it provides that all men shall enjoy religious freedom, yet it does not provide the manner by which that freedom can be preserved, nor for the punishment of Government officers who refuse to protect the people in their religious rights, or punish those mobs, states, or communities who interfere with the rights of the people on account of their religion. Its sentiments are good, but it provides no means of enforcing them. It has but this one fault. Under its provision, a man or a people who are able to protect themselves can get along well enough; but those who have the misfortune to be weak or unpopular are left to the merciless rage of popular fury.

The Constitution should contain a provision that every officer of the Government who should neglect or refuse to extend the protection guaranteed in the Constitution should be subject to capital punishment; and then the president of the United States would not say, "Your cause is just, but I can do nothing for you." (HC 6:56–57; also in TPJS 326–27)

<https://rsc.byu.edu/latter-day-prophets-united-states-constitution/joseph-smith>

"I love the Constitution. It was made by the inspiration of God, and it will be preserved and saved by the efforts of the White Horse and the Red Horse, who will combine in its defense.

The White Horse represents the Elders of Israel, those whom recognize and follow the servant and the Red Horse represents England.

This people will be the staff upon which the nation shall lean and they shall bear the Constitution away from the very verge of destruction.—Then shall the Lord say: Go tell my servants who are the strength of mine house, my young men and middle-aged, etc., Come to the land of my vineyard and fight the battle of the Lord. Then the Kings and Queens shall come, yea the foreign saints shall come to fight for the land of my vineyard, for in this thing shall be their safety and they will have no power to choose but will come as a man fleeth from a sudden destruction. I know these things by the visions of the Almighty. (Joseph Smith Collection; from an address given 19 Jul 1840)

The White Horse will raise an ensign on the tops of the mountains of peace and safety. He raises an ensign to distant nations and summons them from beyond the horizon. Forthwith they come, swiftly and speedily. (Isaiah 5:26)

God announces here is mine "ensign" (the servant) that will prepare the way for the Savior to come. The servant invites those of the world that want to live like Christ's disciples to come to the Promised Land. They rush to dwell together as righteous communities. A haven from the tribulation of the world.

D&C 113:5-6 What is the root of Jesse spoken of in the 10th verse of the 11th chapter? Behold, thus saith the Lord, it is a descendant of Jesse, as well as of Joseph, unto whom rightly belongs the priesthood, and the keys of the kingdom, for an ensign, and for the gathering of my people in the last days.

Isaiah 11:11–12 DSS It will happen in that day that the Lord will set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. He will set up a banner for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. Heavenly Father will set his hand to gather in the remnant of his people when he has set up a banner or ensign for the nations. This banner or ensign is the servant also known as Yahweh of Armies. Setting up this banner is Heavenly Fathers announcement to the world of who this individual is. He will then invite all to gather in for safety from the upcoming invasion of the King of Assyria.

The White Horse will find the mountains full of minerals and they will become very rich. You will see silver piled in the streets. You will see gold shoveled up like sand. Gold will be of little value even in a mercantile capacity, for the people of the world will have something else to do in seeking for salvation. The time will come when the banks in every nation will fail and only two places will be safe where people can deposit their gold and treasures. These places will be the White Horse and England's vaults.

I know this statement to be true from "My Walk with the Savior." I saw that this will come about after the Lord has announced his servant that Isaiah describes to prepare the way for the Coming of our Savior. As the servant sets up the foundation for the Kingdom of God here on the earth, he will establish a bank. There will also be a bank in England that will endure into the Millenium.

Gold and silver will also be hauled to New Jerusalem to adorn the Temple. The gold used to adorn the temple in Old Jerusalem will come from the treasures of King Solomon's Temple for it was an extremely fine gold of Ophir.

A terrible revolution will take place in the land of America, such as has never been seen before; for the land will literally be left without a supreme government and every species of wickedness will run rampant. Father will be against son, and son against father, mother against daughter, and daughter against mother. The most terrible scenes of murder and bloodshed and rapine that have ever been looked upon will take place. Peace will be taken from the earth and there will be no peace only in the Rocky Mountains. This will cause many thousands of the honest in heart to gather there; not because they would be saints, but for safety and because they would not take up the sword against their neighbor. You will be so numerous that you will be in danger of famine, but not for the want of seed time and harvest, but because of so many to be fed. Many will come with bundles under their arms to escape the calamities, and there will be no escape except by fleeing to Zion. Those that come to you will try to keep the laws and be one with you, for they will see your unity and the greatness of your organization. Revelations 6:4 And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

D&C 1:35 For I am no respecter of persons, and will that all men shall know that the day speedily cometh; the hour is not yet, but is nigh at hand, when peace shall be taken from the earth, and the devil shall have power over his own dominion.

Isaiah 19:1-4 DSS The burden of Egypt. “Behold, Yahweh rides on a swift cloud, and comes to Egypt. The idols of Egypt will tremble at his presence; and the heart of Egypt will melt within it. 2 I will stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians, and they will fight everyone against his brother, and everyone against his neighbor; and city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. 3 The spirit of Egypt will fail within it. I will destroy its counsel. They will seek the idols, the charmers, those who have familiar spirits, and the wizards. 4 I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord. A fierce king will rule over them,” says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies.

This people will be the staff upon which the nation shall lean and they shall bear the Constitution away from the very verge of destruction.—Then shall the Lord say: Go tell my servants who are the strength of mine house, my young men and middle-aged, etc., Come to the land of my vineyard and fight the battle of the Lord. Then the Kings and Queens shall come, yea the foreign saints shall come to fight for the land of my vineyard, for in this thing shall be their safety and they will have no power to choose but will come as a man fleeth from a sudden destruction. I know these things by the visions of the Almighty. (Joseph Smith Collection; from an address given 19 Jul 1840)

In the Conference Report of October 1923, Charles W. Nibley, is quoted as saying, “Brethren and sisters, let me say in closing that we have it of record, that the prophet Joseph Smith said the time would come when, through secret organizations taking the law into their own hands, not being governed by law or by due process of law, but becoming a law unto themselves, when, by those disintegrating activities, the Constitution of the United States would be so torn and rent asunder, and life and property and peace and security would be held of so little value, that the Constitution would, as it were, hang by a thread.”

Joseph Smith also spoke of this to Noah Packard. In this letter. (LDS Church Archives, letter from Noah Packard to A. Milton Musser, July 24, 1896). “My brother, Noah Packard, says that he heard the Prophet Joseph Smith say that the next great (U.S. civil) war after the war of the rebellion (the Civil War of the 1860’s between the North and the South) would commence in a little town now called Chicago but at that time it would have grown to be a very large city. And another brother told me that the Prophet said that the cause of the next great trouble of the United States would be the depreciation of the currency of the United States.”

The Turkish Empire will be one of the first powers to be disrupted, for freedom must be given for the Gospel to be preached in the Holy Land.

This map shows the boundaries of The Ottoman Empire. This would have been what Joseph Smith understood. The boundaries of the Turkish Ottoman Empire have been broken up, but missionaries are still not allowed to teach in Israel yet. This will happen.

The Lord took the best blood of the nations and planted them on the small islands now called England and Great Britain, and gave them great power in the nations for a thousand years and their power will continue with them, that they might keep the balance of power and keep Russia from usurping her power over all the world. England and France are now bitter enemies, but they will be allied together and be united to keep Russia from conquering the world.

As I saw in "My Walk with the Savior," England and France will push back Russia after the midpoint of the seven years of tribulation during the judgment period of the tribulation. Before this time Russia will push into other neighboring countries.

The two Popes, Greek and Catholic, will come together and be united. The Protestant religions do not know how much they are indebted to Henry the VIII for throwing off the Pope's Bull and establishing the Protestant faith. He was the only monarch who could do so at the time, and he did it because this nation, England, was at his back to sustain him.

As recently as December 4, 2021, Pope Francis went to visit the Greek Catholics in hope to bring the Eastern and Western churches closer together. Christianity split into the Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox churches in 1054 in what is referred to as the Great Schism, and for centuries relations were rocky. Archbishop, Beatitude Ieronymos II, Francis asked forgiveness in the name of the Roman Catholic Church for its part in the historical wrongs that led to the breakup.

One of the peculiar features of England is the established red coat, a uniform making so remarkable a mark to shoot at, and yet they have conquered wherever they have gone. The reason for this will be known by them some day.

The color red is perhaps the most dominant of colors and indicates passion. It is connected to Eve and to our Savior's robe at one point.

The Lion and the Unicorn of Israel is their ensign; the wisdom and statesmanship of England comes from having so much of the blood of Israel in the nation.

<https://www.biblestudy.org/bibleref/emblems-of-ancient-israel.html>

The Lion of Judah stands in the coat of arms of Jerusalem.

Joseph has the strength of a bull, the horns of a wild ox (the King James Bible translates 'ox' as 'unicorn'). His horns are Manasseh's thousands and Ephraim's ten thousands. With them he gores the nations and pushes them to the ends of the earth (Deuteronomy 33:17).

While the terrible revolution of which I have spoken has been going on, England will be neutral until it becomes so inhuman that she will interfere to stop the shedding of blood. England and France will unite together to make peace, not to subdue the nations; they will find the nations so broken up and so many claiming government, till there will be no responsible government. Then it will appear to the other nations as though England had taken possession of the country.

During the time when the United States is being invaded by Russia and China, England will remain neutral until the elders of Israel have risen up and are led by the servant Isaiah describes to take back the United States from the invaders. As England and France unite to stop China and Russia from killing so many Americans, it may appear to many that England has taken control of the United States. However this is not the case as we see in Isaiah and 2 Esdras. The Servant will set up a new government to reign into the millennium.

It will happen in that day that the nations will seek the root of Jesse, who stands as a banner of the peoples; and his resting place will be glorious. (Isaiah 11:10 DSS)

Joseph Smith inquired of the Lord as to the identity of the root in D&C 113:5 What is the root of Jesse spoken of in the 10th verse of the 11th chapter?

Behold, thus saith the Lord, it is a descendant of Jesse, as well as of Joseph, unto whom rightly belongs the priesthood, and the keys of the kingdom, for an ensign, and for the gathering of my people in the last days. (D&C 113:5-6)

The "Black Horse" will flee to the invaders and will join with them, for they have fear of becoming slaves again, knowing England did not believe in slavery, fleeing to them they believe would make them safe; armed with British bayonets, the doings of the "black horse" will be terrible." (Here the Prophet said he could not bear to look on the scene as shown him in vision and asked the Lord to close the scene.)

The Black Horse represents the people of Africa. The invaders are the King of Assyria's men. The people of the Black Horse are armed with the weapons that were supposed to go to the Ukrainians to fight Russia. As recently as this week we see Hamas armed with weapons from the US and their allies that were supposed to be used to fight Russia used against Israel.

"During this time the great "White Horse" will have gathered strength sending out Elders to gather the honest in heart among the "Pale Horse," or people of the United States, to stand by the Constitution of the United States, as it was given by inspiration of God."

Here we see elders being sent out to gather the honest in heart that stand by the constitution. These elders are none other than the 144,000 whom have received a sure witness of Christ and can testify with authenticity that Christ lives.

In these days God will set up a kingdom, never to be thrown down, for other kingdoms to come unto. And these kingdoms that will not let the gospel be preached will be humbled until they will. England, Germany, Norway, Denmark, Sweden, Switzerland, Holland and Belgium have a considerable amount of the blood of Israel among their people which must be gathered. These nations will submit to the Kingdom of God. England will be the last of these kingdoms to surrender; but when she does, she will do it as a whole in comparison as she threw off the Catholic power. The nobility know that the gospel is true, but it has not enough pomp and grandeur and influence them to embrace it. They are proud and will not acknowledge the kingdom of God, or come unto it until they see the power which it will have.

He raises an ensign to distant nations and summons them from beyond the horizon. Forthwith they come, swiftly and speedily. (Isaiah 5:26 AvG)

It will happen in that day that the Lord will set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. He will set up a banner for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. (Isaiah 11:11-12 DSS)

All you inhabitants of the world, and you dwellers on the earth, when a banner is lifted up on the mountains, look! When the trumpet is blown, listen! (Isaiah 18:3 DSS)

Peace and safety in the Rocky Mountains will be protected by a cordon band of the "White Horse" and the "Red Horse."

Cordon means: A line of people, military posts, or ships stationed around an area to enclose or guard it.

The White Horse and the Red Horse represent the elders of Israel, the house of Joseph whose sons were Ephriam and Manasses.

The coming of the Messiah among this people will be so natural that only those who see Him will know that He has come, but He will come and give His laws unto Zion, and minister unto His people. This will not be His coming in the clouds of Heaven to take vengeance on the wicked of the world.

I know this to be true. I saw in my walk with the Savior 5 different meetings at Adam-ondi-Ahman each meeting increasing in number as the Savior instructed the last keepers of the vineyard.

Many people I know of have already seen the Savior walking among them in plain clothes. I testify this is true.

If we read and understand Isaiah and 2 Esdras we see the servant or the Lyon is empowered as the right hand of God to destroy the wicked and prepare the earth for the Savior's second coming. John the Baptist was the prerunner at his first coming to prepare the way for his coming.

The Temple in Jackson County will be built in this generation. The saints will think there is not time enough to build it; built with the help you will receive, you can put up a great temple quickly. They will have all the gold, silver, and precious stones; for these things only will be used for the beautifying of the temple; all the skilled mechanics you want, and the Ten Tribes of Israel will help you build it. When you see this land, bound with iron, you may look toward Jackson County.

I and others have seen the people of the City of Enoch and the lost ten tribes return and help the Ephriamites and those from Manassas build the temple of New Jerusalem. In my walk with the Savior I saw the people from the City of Enoch teach us how to use the power of the priesthood to create amazing stones and carve out amazing things from wood for the temple. I saw the people from the lost ten tribes hauling Gold and silver from the Rocky Mountains on horse to the temple grounds for construction.

Sources of Iron for tools will be found in Missouri for making tools and necessary things. Concerning the temple in Old Jerusalem I saw the gold and silver pieces from Solomon's temple returned to adorn the temple there.

"There is a land beyond the Rocky Mountains that will be invaded by the heathen Chinese unless great care and protection are given. Where there is no law, there is no condemnation, and this will apply to them (the heathen nations). Power will be given the White Horse to rebuke nations afar off, and they will be one with the White Horse, but when the law goes forth they will obey; for the law will go forth from Zion. The last great struggle Zion will have to contend with will be when the whole of the Americans will be made the Zion of our God. Those opposing will be called Gog and Magog (some of the nations of the world led by Russian czar) and their power will be great, but all the opposition will be overcome and then this land will be the Zion of our God."

I and others have seen in vision the Chinese invading the west coast. As the Chinese proceed to wreak havoc to gain control of their half of the US they will have no regard for life.

"Power will be given to the White Horse" refers to the Rider of the White Horse as spoken by John the Revelator in Rev 6:2 And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

This description of the one that rides the white horse matches the description in Isaiah of the servant, Yahweh of Armies (as written in the Dead Sea scrolls), or the Lyon described by Esdras in 2 Esdras. He is given power as God's right hand at a certain point in the tribulation to go forth and separate the righteous from the wicked, and protect God's elect children. He prepares that earth for the Saviors coming to rule and reign for a thousand years.

2 Esdras 12:31 And the Lyon whom thou sawest rising up out of the wood, and roaring, and speaking to the Eagle, and rebuking her for her unrighteousness, with all the words which thou hast heard,

32 This is the Anointed which the Highest hath kept for them, and for their wickedness unto the end: he shall reprove them, and shall upbraid them with their cruelty.

As spoken by John the Revelator in Rev 6:2 And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

This description of the one that rides the white horse matches the description in Isaiah of the servant or Yahweh of Armies as written in the Dead Sea scrolls. He is given power as God's right hand at a certain point in the tribulation to go forth and separate the righteous from the wicked, and protect God's elect children. He prepares that earth for the Saviors coming to rule and reign for a thousand years.

Research Sources:

Dead Sea Scrolls

The Second Book of Esdras

Ogden Kraut - The White Horse Prophecy

BYU Studies The Source of the White Horse Prophecy

The Man Adam - Robert Millett

e at that time?" He said, ³ "I shall never go there. ⁴ Your enemies will continue to follow you with persecutions and will make obnoxious laws against you in Congress to destroy the White Horse, but you will have a friend to defend you to throw out the worst part of the laws, so they will not hurt much. You must continue to petition Congress all the time, but they will not give you your rights but will govern you with strangers and commissioners; ⁵ you will see the Constitution of the United States almost destroyed; it will hang by a thread, as it were, as fine as the finest silk fiber."

At this point, the Prophet's countenance became sad; he said, ⁶ "I love the Constitution. It was made by the inspiration of God, and it will be preserved and saved by the efforts of the White Horse and the Red Horse, who will combine in its defense.

⁷The White Horse will raise an ensign on the tops of the mountains of peace and safety.

⁸The White Horse will find the mountains full of minerals and they will become very rich. You will see silver piled in the streets. You will see gold shoveled up like sand. Gold will be of little value even in a mercantile capacity, for the people of the world will have something else to do in seeking for salvation. The time will come when the banks in every nation will fail and only two places will be safe where people can deposit their gold and treasures. These places will be the White Horse and England's vaults.

⁹*A terrible revolution will take place in the land of America, such as has never been seen before; for the land will literally be left without a supreme government and every species of wickedness will run rampant. Father will be against son, and son against father, mother against daughter, and daughter against mother. The most terrible scenes of murder and bloodshed and rapine that have ever been looked upon will take place. Peace will be taken from the earth and there will be no peace only in the Rocky Mountains. This will cause many thousands of the honest in heart to gather there; not because they would be saints, but for safety and because they would not take up the sword against their neighbor. You will be so numerous that you will be in danger of famine, but not for the want of seed time and harvest, but because of so many to be fed. Many will come with bundles under their arms to escape the calamities, and there will be no escape except by fleeing to Zion. Those that come to you will try to keep the laws and be one with you, for they will see your unity and the greatness of your organization.*

¹⁰*The Turkish Empire will be one of the first powers to be disrupted, for freedom must be given for the Gospel to be preached in the Holy Land.*

¹¹*The Lord took the best blood of the nations and planted them on the small islands now called England and Great Britain, and gave them great power in the nations for a thousand years and their power will continue with them, that they might keep the balance of power and keep Russia from usurping her power over all the world. England and France are now bitter enemies, but they will be allied together and be united to keep Russia from conquering the world.*

¹²*The two Popes, Greek and Catholic, will come together and be united. The Protestant religions do not know how much they are indebted to Henry the VIII for throwing off the Pope's Bull and establishing the Protestant faith. He was the only monarch who could do so at the time, and he did it because this nation, England, was at his back to sustain him.*

¹³*One of the peculiar features of England is the established red coat, a uniform making so remarkable a mark to shoot at, and yet they have conquered wherever they have gone. The reason for this will be known by them some day.* ¹⁴*The Lion and the Unicorn of Israel is their ensign; the wisdom and statesmanship of England comes from having so much of the blood of Israel in the nation.*

¹⁵*While the terrible revolution of which I have spoken has been going on, England will be neutral until it becomes so inhuman that she will interfere to stop the shedding of blood. England and France will unite together to make peace, not to subdue the nations; they will find the nations so broken up and so many claiming government, till there will be no responsible government. Then it will appear to the other nations as though England had taken possession of the country.*

¹⁶*The "Black Horse" will flee to the invaders and will join with them, for they have fear of becoming slaves again, knowing England did not believe in slavery, fleeing to them they believe would make them safe; armed with British bayonets, the doings of the "black horse" will be terrible." (Here the Prophet said he could not bear to look on the scene as shown him in vision and asked the Lord to close the scene.)*

Continuing, he said, ¹⁷*"During this time the great "White Horse" will have gathered strength sending out Elders to gather the honest in heart among the "Pale Horse," or people of the United States, to stand by the Constitution of the United States, as it was given by inspiration of God."*

¹⁸ In these days God will set up a kingdom, never to be thrown down, for other kingdoms to come unto. And these kingdoms that will not let the gospel be preached will be humbled until they will. England, Germany, Norway, Denmark, Sweden, Switzerland, Holland and Belgium have a considerable amount of the blood of Israel among their people which must be gathered. These nations will submit to the Kingdom of God. England will be the last of these kingdoms to surrender; but when she does, she will do it as a whole in comparison as she threw off the Catholic power. The nobility know that the gospel is true, but it has not enough pomp and grandeur and influence them to embrace it. They are proud and will not acknowledge the kingdom of God, or come unto it until they see the power which it will have. ¹⁹ Peace and safety in the Rocky Mountains will be protected by a cordon band of the "White Horse" and the "Red Horse."

²⁰ The coming of the Messiah among this people will be so natural that only those who see Him will know that He has come, but He will come and give His laws unto Zion, and minister unto His people. This will not be His coming in the clouds of Heaven to take vengeance on the wicked of the world.

²¹ The Temple in Jackson County will be built in this generation. The saints will think there is not time enough to build it; built with the help you will receive, you can put up a great temple quickly. They will have all the gold, silver, and precious stones; for these things only will be used for the beautifying of the temple; all the skilled mechanics you want, and the Ten Tribes of Israel will help you build it. When you see this land, bound with iron, you may look toward Jackson County.

At this point, he made a pause, and looking up as though the vision was still in view, he said, ²² "There is a land beyond the Rocky Mountains that will be invaded by the heathen Chinese unless great care and protection are given. Where there is no law, there is no condemnation, and this will apply to them (the heathen nations). Power will be given the White Horse to rebuke nations afar off, and they will be one with the White Horse, but when the law goes forth they will obey; for the law will go forth from Zion. The last great struggle Zion will have to contend with will be when the whole of the Americans will be made the Zion of our God. Those opposing will be called Gog and Magog (some of the nations of the world led by Russian czar) and their power will be great, but all the opposition will be overcome and then this land will be the Zion of our God."

Ref: <https://byustudies.byu.edu/article/edwin-rushton-as-the-source-of-the-white-horse-prophecy/>

Review

1. "I want to tell you something. I will speak in a parable like unto John the Revelator.
 - a. We will see Joseph use metaphorical terms as he describes the future he sees.
2. "I shall never go there.
 - a. Joseph Smith was killed in Carthage, Ill June 27, 1844. Two years later Brigham Young led one third of the saints to Utah in the Rocky Mountains. It's interesting that only one third of the Israelite left Egypt with Moses to go to the Promised Land.
3. You will be in the Rocky Mountains, and you will be a great and mighty people established there, which I will call the White Horse of Peace and Safety."

a. Here the White Horse represents the Elders of Israel or the Church of Jesus Christ.

4. Your enemies will continue to follow you with persecutions and will make obnoxious laws against you in Congress to destroy the White Horse, but you will have a friend to defend you to throw out the worst part of the laws, so they will not hurt much. You must continue to petition Congress all the time, but they will not give you your rights but will govern you with strangers and commissioners;

a. We can see examples of this in the past during Brigham Young's day, but we will continue to see men standing up for religious liberty yet in the future.

i. Shortly after the Saints arrived in this Rocky Mountain region, the Government sent out a massive army to "put down" the Mormons. However, when some of the Mormons in the east learned of the plot, Smoot, Rockwell, and Stoddard traveled 513 miles in five days from Fort Laramie to bring the [46] news to Governor Brigham Young. The armed expedition didn't accomplish what they set out to do, and it proved to be a blessing in disguise for the Saints. Later when the Army was disbanded in Utah, millions of dollars in goods were sold to the Mormons for less than 3% of their actual cost.

ii. On February 16, 1882, another law was passed against the Mormons called the Edmunds Bill. (Congressional Record 47th Congress, 1st Session, Vol. 13:1152-3) This would [48] prohibit any polygamist from voting, holding public office or public trust. It was also intended to overturn the "political power" in the territory.

iii. In March 1887, another law was passed called the Edmunds-Tucker Bill, which stated that a wife had to testify against her husband. Polygamists could be taken to jail without investigation or subpoena, and compelled immediate witnesses to attendance. All marriages were to be reported with the names of the witnesses, nature of the ceremony, and the name of the officer or religious dignitary performing the ceremony. Female suffrage was abolished. Anyone believing in plural marriage would be barred from voting and prohibited from teaching or advocating plural marriage. It also dissolved the Perpetual Emigrating Company which had been set up to assist Mormons in gathering to the territory. It provided for the disincorporation of the Mormon Church and all property over $50,000 was escheated to the federal government.

As a result, the U.S. Government took a great portion of Church property, including land and buildings. Leonard Arrington in his Great Basin Kingdom (page 371) listed some of the items which were seized.

The Salt Lake Temple was rented back to the Mormons for over $400 a month. The annual rent for the Tithing Office and Historian's Office was $4,400 a year, and the Gardo House was rented to the Saints for $400 a month. When Utah gained statehood in 1896, most of these possessions were returned to the Mormons, but much of the land seized by the Federal Government has never been returned.

- iv. Charles S. Kane was also considered a friend of the Mormons, and in most conditions he supported and respected them, as this incident demonstrates:

When Colonel Kane came to visit us, he tried to point out a policy for me <Brigham Young> to pursue. But I told him I should not turn to the right or left, or pursue any course, only as God dictated. I should do nothing but what was right. When he found that I would not be informed, only as the Spirit of the Lord led me, he felt discouraged and said he would not go to the army. But finally, he said, if I would dictate he would execute. I told him that as he had been inspired to come here, he should go to the army and do as the Spirit of the Lord led him, and all would be right. He did so, and all was right. (CHC 3:349)

5. “you will see the Constitution of the United States almost destroyed; it will hang by a thread, as it were, as fine as the finest silk fiber.”

a. D&C 101:77 According to the laws and constitution of the people, which I have suffered to be established, and should be maintained for the rights and protection of all flesh, according to just and holy principles; 80 And for this purpose have I established the Constitution of this land, by the hands of wise men whom I raised up unto this very purpose, and redeemed the land by the shedding of blood.

- b. D&C 109:54 Have mercy, O Lord, upon all the nations of the earth; have mercy upon the rulers of our land; may those principles, which were so honorably and nobly defended, namely, the Constitution of our land, by our fathers, be established forever.
- c. 2 Esdras 12:18 That after the time of that kingdom, there shall arise great strings, and it shall stand in peril of falling: nevertheless it shall not then fall, but shall be restored again to his beginning.
- d. Even this Nation will be on the very verge of crumbling to pieces [sic] and tumbling to the ground and when the constitution is upon the brink of ruin this people will be the Staff up[on] which the Nation shall lean and they shall bear the constitution away from the very verge of destruction. (WJS 416)
- e. This people will be the staff upon which the nation shall lean and they shall bear the Constitution away from the very verge of destruction.—Then shall the Lord say: Go tell my servants who are the strength of mine house, my young men and middle-aged, etc., Come to the land of my vineyard and fight the battle of the Lord. Then the Kings and Queens shall come, yea the foreign saints shall come to fight for the land of my vineyard, for in this thing shall be their safety and they will have no power to choose but will come as a man fleeth from a sudden destruction. I know these things by the visions of the Almighty. (Joseph Smith Collection; from an address given 19 Jul 1840)

- f. The Constitution is not a law, but it empowers the people to make laws
The Constitution tells us what shall not be a lawful tender The legislature has ceded up to us the privilege of enacting such laws as are not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States The different states, and even Congress itself, have passed many laws diametrically contrary to the Constitution of the United States.
- g. . . . Shall we be such fools as to be governed by its laws, which are unconstitutional? No! . . . The Constitution acknowledges that the people have all power not reserved to itself. I am a lawyer, I am a big lawyer and comprehend heaven, earth and hell, to bring forth knowledge that shall cover up all lawyers, doctors and other big bodies. This is the doctrine of the Constitution, so help me God. The Constitution is not law to us, but it makes provision for us whereby we can make laws. Where it provides that no one shall be hindered from worshiping God according to his own conscience, is a law. No legislature can enact a law to prohibit it. The Constitution provides to regulate bodies of men and not individuals. (HC 5:289–90; also in TPJS 278)
- h. I am the greatest advocate of the Constitution of the United States there is on the earth. In my feelings I am always ready to die for the protection of the weak and oppressed in their just rights. The only fault I find with the Constitution is, it is not broad enough to cover the whole ground.
Although it provides that all men shall enjoy religious freedom, yet it does not provide the manner by which that freedom can be preserved, nor for the punishment of Government officers who refuse to protect the people in their religious rights, or punish those mobs, states, or communities who interfere with the rights of the people on account of their religion. Its sentiments are good, but it provides no means of enforcing them. It has but this one fault. Under its provision, a man or a people who are able to protect themselves can get along well enough; but those who have the misfortune to be weak or unpopular are left to the merciless rage of popular fury.
The Constitution should contain a provision that every officer of the Government who should neglect or refuse to extend the protection guaranteed in the Constitution should be subject to capital punishment; and then the president of the United States would not say, “Your cause is just, but I can do nothing for you.” (HC 6:56–57; also in TPJS 326–27)
- i. <https://rsc.byu.edu/latter-day-prophets-united-states-constitution/joseph-smith>

6. "I love the Constitution. It was made by the inspiration of God, and it will be preserved and saved by the efforts of the White Horse and the Red Horse, who will combine in its defense.

a. The White Horse represents the Elders of Israel, those whom recognize and follow the servant and the Red Horse represents England.

a. This people will be the staff upon which the nation shall lean and they shall bear the Constitution away from the very verge of destruction.—Then shall the Lord say: Go tell my servants who are the strength of mine house, my young men and middle-aged, etc., Come to the land of my vineyard and fight the battle of the Lord. Then the Kings and Queens shall come, yea the foreign saints shall come to fight for the land of my vineyard, for in this thing shall be their safety and they will have no power to choose but will come as a man fleeth from a sudden destruction. I know these things by the visions of the Almighty. (Joseph Smith Collection; from an address given 19 Jul 1840)

7. The White Horse will raise an ensign on the tops of the mountains of peace and safety.

a. He raises an ensign to distant nations and summons them from beyond the horizon. Forthwith they come, swiftly and speedily. (Isaiah 5:26)

i. God announces here is mine "ensign" (the servant) that will prepare the way for the Savior to come. The servant invites those of the world that want to live like Christ's disciples to come to the Promised Land. They rush to dwell together as righteous communities. A haven from the tribulation of the world.

i. D&C 113:5-6 What is the root of Jesse spoken of in the 10th verse of the 11th chapter? Behold, thus saith the Lord, it is a descendant of Jesse, as well as of Joseph, unto whom rightly belongs the priesthood, and the keys of the kingdom, for an ensign, and for the gathering of my people in the last days.

iii. Isaiah 11:11–12 DSS It will happen in that day that the Lord will set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. He will set up a banner for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

1. Heavenly Father will set his hand to gather in the remnant of his people when he has set up a banner or ensign for the nations. This banner or ensign is the servant also known as Yahweh of Armies. Setting up this banner is Heavenly Father's announcement to the world of who this individual is. He will then invite all to gather in for safety from the upcoming invasion of the King of Assyria.

8. The White Horse will find the mountains full of minerals and they will become very rich. You will see silver piled in the streets. You will see gold shoveled up like sand. Gold will be of little value even in a mercantile capacity, for the people of the world will have something else to do in seeking for salvation. The time will come when the banks in every nation will fail and only two places will be safe where people can deposit their gold and treasures. These places will be the White Horse and England's vaults.

a. I know this statement to be true from "My Walk with the Savior." I saw that this will come about after the Lord has announced his servant that Isaiah describes to prepare the way for the Coming of our Savior. As the servant sets up the foundation for the Kingdom of God here on the earth, he will establish a bank. There will also be a bank in England that will endure into the Millennium.

- b. Gold and silver will also be hauled to New Jerusalem to adorn the Temple. The gold used to adorn the temple in Old Jerusalem will come from the treasures of King Solomon's Temple for it was an extremely fine gold of Ophir.
9. A terrible revolution will take place in the land of America, such as has never been seen before; for the land will literally be left without a supreme government and every species of wickedness will run rampant. Father will be against son, and son against father, mother against daughter, and daughter against mother. The most terrible scenes of murder and bloodshed and rapine that have ever been looked upon will take place. Peace will be taken from the earth and there will be no peace only in the Rocky Mountains. This will cause many thousands of the honest in heart to gather there; not because they would be saints, but for safety and because they would not take up the sword against their neighbor. You will be so numerous that you will be in danger of famine, but not for the want of seed time and harvest, but because of so many to be fed. Many will come with bundles under their arms to escape the calamities, and there will be no escape except by fleeing to Zion. Those that come to you will try to keep the laws and be one with you, for they will see your unity and the greatness of your organization.
- a. Revelations 6:4 And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.
 - b. D&C 1:35 For I am no respecter of persons, and will that all men shall know that the day speedily cometh; the hour is not yet, but is nigh at hand, when peace shall be taken from the earth, and the devil shall have power over his own dominion.
 - c. Isaiah 19:1-4 DSS The burden of Egypt. "Behold, Yahweh rides on a swift cloud, and comes to Egypt. The idols of Egypt will tremble at his presence; and the heart of Egypt will melt within it. ² I will stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians, and they will fight everyone against his brother, and everyone against his neighbor; and city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. ³ The spirit of Egypt will fail within it. I will destroy its counsel. They will seek the idols, the charmers, those who have familiar spirits, and the wizards. ⁴ I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord. A fierce king will rule over them," says the Lord, Yahweh of Armies.
 - d. This people will be the staff upon which the nation shall lean and they shall bear the Constitution away from the very verge of destruction.—Then shall the Lord say: Go tell my servants who are the strength of mine house, my young men and middle-aged, etc., Come to the land of my vineyard and fight the battle of the Lord. Then the Kings and Queens shall come, yea the foreign saints shall come to fight for the land of my vineyard, for in this thing shall be their safety and they will have no power to choose but will come as a man fleeth from a sudden destruction. I know these things by the visions of the Almighty. (Joseph Smith Collection; from an address given 19 Jul 1840)

- e. In the Conference Report of October 1923, Charles W. Nibley, is quoted as saying, "Brethren and sisters, let me say in closing that we have it of record, that the prophet Joseph Smith said the time would come when, through secret organizations taking the law into their own hands, not being governed by law or by due process of law, but becoming a law unto themselves, when, by those disintegrating activities, the Constitution of the United States would be so torn and rent asunder, and life and property and peace and security would be held of so little value, that the Constitution would, as it were, hang by a thread."
 - f. Joseph Smith also spoke of this to Noah Packard. In this letter. (LDS Church Archives, letter from Noah Packard to A. Milton Musser, July 24, 1896). "My brother, Noah Packard, says that he heard the Prophet Joseph Smith say that the next great (U.S. civil) war after the war of the rebellion (the Civil War of the 1860's between the North and the South) would commence in a little town now called Chicago but at that time it would have grown to be a very large city. And another brother told me that the Prophet said that the cause of the next great trouble of the United States would be the depreciation of the currency of the United States."
10. The Turkish Empire will be one of the first powers to be disrupted, for freedom must be given for the Gospel to be preached in the Holy Land.

a. This map shows the boundaries of The Ottoman Empire. This would have been what Joseph Smith understood. The boundaries of the Turkish Ottoman Empire have been broken up, but missionaries are still not allowed to teach in Israel yet. This will happen.

11. The Lord took the best blood of the nations and planted them on the small islands now called England and Great Britain, and gave them great power in the nations for a thousand years and their power will continue with them, that they might keep the balance of power and keep Russia from usurping her power over all the world. England and France are now bitter enemies, but they will be allied together and be united to keep Russia from conquering the world.

a. As I saw in "My Walk with the Savior," England and France will push back Russia after the midpoint of the seven years of tribulation during the judgment period of the tribulation. Before this time Russia will push into other neighboring countries.

12. The two Popes, Greek and Catholic, will come together and be united. The Protestant religions do not know how much they are indebted to Henry the VIII for throwing off the Pope's Bull and establishing the Protestant faith. He was the only monarch who could do so at the time, and he did it because this nation, England, was at his back to sustain him.

a. As recently as December 4, 2021, Pope Francis went to visit the Greek Catholics in hope to bring the Eastern and Western churches closer together.

Christianity split into the Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox churches in 1054 in what is referred to as the Great Schism, and for centuries relations were rocky. Archbishop, Beatitude Ieronymos II, Francis asked forgiveness in the name of the Roman Catholic Church for its part in the historical wrongs that led to the breakup.

13. One of the peculiar features of England is the established red coat, a uniform making so remarkable a mark to shoot at, and yet they have conquered wherever they have gone. The reason for this will be known by them some day.

a. The color red is perhaps the most dominant of colors and indicates passion. It is connected to Eve and to our Savior's robe at one point.

13. The Lion and the Unicorn of Israel is their ensign; the wisdom and statesmanship of England comes from having so much of the blood of Israel in the nation.

a. <https://www.biblestudy.org/bibleref/emblems-of-ancient-israel.html>

a. The Lion of Judah stands in the coat of arms of Jerusalem.

a. Joseph has the strength of a bull, the horns of a wild ox (the King James Bible translates 'ox' as 'unicorn'). His horns are Manasseh's thousands and Ephraim's ten thousands. With them he gores the nations and pushes them to the ends of the earth (Deuteronomy 33:17).

15. While the terrible revolution of which I have spoken has been going on, England will be neutral until it becomes so inhuman that she will interfere to stop the shedding of blood. England and France will unite together to make peace, not to subdue the nations; they will find the nations so broken up and so many claiming government, till there will be no responsible government. Then it will appear to the other nations as though England had taken possession of the country.

a. During the time when the United States is being invaded by Russia and China, England will remain neutral until the elders of Israel have risen up and are led by the servant Isaiah describes to take back the United States from the invaders. As England and France unite to stop China and Russia from killing so many Americans, it may appear to many that England has taken control of the United States. However this is not the case as we see in Isaiah and 2 Esdras. The Servant will set up a new government to reign into the millennium.

i. It will happen in that day that the nations will seek the root of Jesse, who stands as a banner of the peoples; and his resting place will be glorious. (Isaiah 11:10 DSS)

1. Joseph Smith inquired of the Lord as to the identity of the root in D&C 113:5 What is the root of Jesse spoken of in the 10th verse of the 11th chapter?

Behold, thus saith the Lord, it is a descendant of Jesse, as well as of Joseph, unto whom rightly belongs the priesthood, and the keys of the kingdom, for an ensign, and for the gathering of my people in the last days. (D&C 113:5-6)

16. The "Black Horse" will flee to the invaders and will join with them, for they have fear of becoming slaves again, knowing England did not believe in slavery, fleeing to them they believe would make them safe; armed with British bayonets, the doings of the "black horse" will be terrible. (Here the Prophet said he could not bear to look on the scene as shown him in vision and asked the Lord to close the scene.)

a. The Black Horse represents the people of Africa. The invaders are the King of Assyrian's men. The people of the Black Horse are armed with the weapons that were supposed to go to the Ukrainians to fight Russia. As recently as this week we see Hamas armed with weapons from the US and their allies that were supposed to be used to fight Russia used against Israel.

17. "During this time the great "White Horse" will have gathered strength sending out Elders to gather the honest in heart among the "Pale Horse," or people of the United States, to stand by the Constitution of the United States, as it was given by inspiration of God."

a. Here we see elders being sent out to gather the honest in heart that stand by the constitution. These elders are none other than the 144,000 whom have received a sure witness of Christ and can testify with authenticity that Christ lives.

18. In these days God will set up a kingdom, never to be thrown down, for other kingdoms to come unto. And these kingdoms that will not let the gospel be preached will be humbled until they will. England, Germany, Norway, Denmark, Sweden, Switzerland, Holland and Belgium have a considerable amount of the blood of Israel among their people which must be gathered. These nations will submit to the Kingdom of God. England will be the last of these kingdoms to surrender; but when she does, she will do it as a whole in comparison as she threw off the Catholic power. The nobility know that the gospel is true, but it has not enough pomp and grandeur and influence them to embrace it. They are proud and will not acknowledge the kingdom of God, or come unto it until they see the power which it will have.

a. He raises an ensign to distant nations and summons them from beyond the horizon. Forthwith they come, swiftly and speedily. (Isaiah 5:26 AvG)

a. It will happen in that day that the Lord will set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. He will set up a banner for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. (Isaiah 11:11–12 DSS)

a. All you inhabitants of the world, and you dwellers on the earth, when a banner is lifted up on the mountains, look! When the trumpet is blown, listen! (Isaiah 18:3 DSS)

19. Peace and safety in the Rocky Mountains will be protected by a cordon band of the “White Horse” and the “Red Horse.”

a. Cordon means: A line of people, military posts, or ships stationed around an area to enclose or guard it.

a. The White Horse and the Red Horse represent the elders of Israel, the house of Joseph whose sons were Ephriam and Manasses.

20. The coming of the Messiah among this people will be so natural that only those who see Him will know that He has come, but He will come and give His laws unto Zion, and minister unto His people. This will not be His coming in the clouds of Heaven to take vengeance on the wicked of the world.

a. I know this to be true. I saw in my walk with the Savior 5 different meetings at Adam-ondi-Ahman each meeting increasing in number as the Savior instructed the last keepers of the vineyard.

a. Many people I know of have already seen the Savior walking among them in plain clothes. I testify this is true.

a. If we read and understand Isaiah and 2 Esdras we see the servant or the Lyon is empowered as the right hand of God to destroy the wicked and prepare the earth for the Savior's second coming. John the Baptist was the prerunner at his first coming to prepare the way for his coming.

21. The Temple in Jackson County will be built in this generation. The saints will think there is not time enough to build it; built with the help you will receive, you can put up a great temple quickly. They will have all the gold, silver, and precious stones; for these things only will be used for the beautifying of the temple; all the skilled mechanics you want, and the Ten Tribes of Israel will help you build it. When you see this land, bound with iron, you may look toward Jackson County.

a. I and others have seen the people of the City of Enoch and the lost ten tribes return and help the Ephriamites and those from Manasses build the temple of New Jerusalem. In my walk with the Savior I saw the people from the City of Enoch teach us how to use the power of the priesthood to create amazing stones and carve out amazing things from wood for the temple. I saw the people from the lost ten tribes hauling Gold and silver from the Rocky Mountains on horse to the temple grounds for construction.

a. Sources of Iron for tools will be found in Missouri for making tools and necessary things.

a. Concerning the temple in Old Jerusalem I saw the gold and silver pieces from Solomon's temple returned to adorn the temple there.

22. "There is a land beyond the Rocky Mountains that will be invaded by the heathen Chinese unless great care and protection are given. Where there is no law, there is no condemnation, and this will apply to them (the heathen nations). Power will be given the White Horse to rebuke nations afar off, and they will be one with the White Horse, but when the law goes forth they will obey; for the law will go forth from Zion. The last great struggle Zion will have to contend with will be when the whole of the Americans will be made the Zion of our God. Those opposing will be called Gog and Magog (some of the nations of the world led by Russian czar) and their power will be great, but all the opposition will be overcome and then this land will be the Zion of our God."

a. I and others have seen in vision the Chinese invading the west coast. As the Chinese proceed to wreak havoc to gain control of their half of the US they will have no regard for life.

a. "Power will be given to the White Horse" refers to the Rider of the White Horse i.as spoken by John the Revelator in Rev 6:2 And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

This description of the one that rides the white horse matches the description in Isaiah of the servant, Yahweh of Armies (as written in the Dead Sea scrolls), or the Lyon described by Esdras in 2 Esdras. He is given power as God's right hand at a certain point in the tribulation to go forth and separate the righteous from the wicked, and protect God's elect children. He prepares that earth for the Saviors coming to rule and reign for a thousand years.

ii. 2 Esdras 12:31 And the Lyon whom thou sawest rising up out of the wood, and roaring, and speaking to the Eagle, and rebuking her for her unrighteousness, with all the words which thou hast heard, 32 This is the Anointed which the Highest hath kept for them, and for their wickedness unto the end: he shall reprove them, and shall upbraid them with their cruelty.

iii. As spoken by John the Revelator in Rev 6:2 And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

This description of the one that rides the white horse matches the description in Isaiah of the servant or Yahweh of Armies as written in the Dead Sea scrolls. He is given power as God's right hand at a certain point in the tribulation to go forth and separate the righteous from the wicked, and protect God's elect children. He prepares that earth for the Saviors coming to rule and reign for a thousand years.

Research Sources:

1. Dead Sea Scrolls
2. The Second Book of Esdras
3. Ogden Kraut - The White Horse Prophecy
4. BYU Studies The Source of the White Horse Prophecy

5. The Man Adam - Robert Millett